Stonebon Media, is a focus on the stone industry information dissemination and enterprise brand promotion media organizations. I have been deeply involved in the stone industry for nearly ten years, and completed the upgrade in 2017. The original DM picture book of "purchasing general information" has evolved into a modern all-media matrix media company integrating publications, WeChat, PC official website, mobile phone network, third-party high-traffic platform, outdoor large-screen advertising and other forms of communication.

Currently, it owns: Stonebon magazine, Stonebon Toutiao news portal (mobile terminal of the first news portal in the industry), official WeChat ID (WeChat subscribers are more than 50,000 +), official penguin, official toutiao, official phoenix, official netease and other information platforms. Stonebon Media has the strongest editorial team in the industry, deeply rooted in the industry, pays attention to the original, all-weather real-time broadcast, to create the industry's first all media matrix, aimed at disseminating the most objective, timely content information and temperature industry news for the industry. Stonebon Media will always be in line with the vision of "reshaping the new height of the stone industry", committed to providing accurate and efficient corporate image publicity and brand promotion services for industry enterprises.
